Describe in 2-3 sentences what you expect to achieve from this course.

In this course, I expect to gain a deep understanding of R programming and data analysis techniques, which will enable me to efficiently handle, analyze and extract meaningful patterns from large datasets. I also aim to develop practical skills in data mining algorithms, statistical modeling and visualization, which I think would be very useful for my professional career in the future.